

Texas Hotel Occupancy Tax Exemption Certificate

Provide completed certificate to hotel to claim exemption from hotel tax. Hotel operators should request a photo ID, business card or other document to verify a guest's affiliation with the exempt entity. Employees of exempt entities traveling on official business can pay in any manner. For non-employees to be exempt, the exempt entity must provide a completed certificate and pay the hotel with its funds (e.g., exempt entity check, credit card or direct billing). This certificate does not need a number to be valid.

Permanent Resident Exemption (30 consecutive days): An exemption certificate is not required for the permanent resident exemption. A permanent resident is exempt the day the guest has given written notice or reserves a room for at least 30 consecutive days and the guest stays for 30 consecutive days, beginning on the reservation date. Otherwise, a permanent resident is exempt on the 31st consecutive day of the stay and is not entitled to a tax refund on the first 30 days. Any interruption in the resident's right to occupy a room voids the exemption. A permanent resident is exempt from state and local hotel tax.

Hotels should keep all records, including completed exemption certificates, for four years.

Do NOT send this form to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Texas Hotel Occupancy Tax Exemptions

See Rule 3.161: Definitions, Exemptions, and Exemption Certificate for additional information.

United States Federal Agencies or Foreign Diplomats (exempt from state and local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes the following:

- the United States federal government, its agencies and departments, including branches of the military, federal credit unions, and their employees traveling on official business;
- rooms paid by vouchers issued by the American Red Cross and the Federal Emergency Management Agency; and
- foreign diplomats who present a Tax Exemption Card issued by the U.S. Department of State, unless the card specifically excludes hotel occupancy tax.

Federal government contractors are not exempt.

Texas State Government Officials and Employees (exempt from state and local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes only Texas state officials or employees who present a Hotel Tax Exemption Photo Identification Card. State employees without a Hotel Tax Exemption Photo Identification Card and Texas state agencies are not exempt. (The state employee must pay hotel tax, but their state agency can apply for a refund.)

Charitable Entities (exempt from state hotel tax, but not local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes entities that have been issued a letter of tax exemption as a charitable organization and their employees traveling on official business. See website referenced below.

A charitable entity devotes all or substantially all of its activities to the alleviation of poverty, disease, pain and suffering by providing food, clothing, medicine, medical treatment, shelter or psychological counseling directly to indigent or similarly deserving members of society.

Not all 501(c)(3) or nonprofit organizations qualify under this category.

Educational Entities (exempt from state hotel tax, but not local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes in-state and out-of-state school districts, private or public elementary, middle and high schools, Texas Regional Education Service Centers and Texas institutions of higher education (see Texas Education Code Section 61.003) and their employees traveling on official business.

A letter of tax exemption from the Comptroller of Public Accounts as an educational organization is not required, but an educational organization might have one.

Out-of-state colleges and universities are not exempt.

Religious Organizations (exempt from state hotel tax, but not local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes nonprofit churches and their guiding or governing bodies that have been issued a letter of tax exemption from the Comptroller of Public Accounts as a religious organization and their employees traveling on official business. See website referenced below.

Exempt by Other Federal or State Law (exempt from state and local hotel tax)

This exemption category includes the following:

- entities exempted by other federal law, such as federal land banks and federal land credit associations and their employees traveling on official business; and
- Texas entities exempted by other state law that have been issued a letter of tax exemption from the Comptroller of Public Accounts and their employees traveling on official business. See website referenced below. These entities include the following:
 - nonprofit electric and telephone cooperatives,
 - housing authorities,
 - housing finance corporations,
 - public facility corporations,
 - health facilities development corporations,
 - cultural education facilities finance corporations, and
 - major sporting event local organizing committees.

Mr. Keith Gernold
University of Houston
Tax Director
4800 Calhoun Road
Houston, Texas 77204

Dear Mr. Gernold:

Our records show the University of Houston is an exempt educational organization. It qualifies for exemption from Texas sales and use tax and the state portion of the hotel occupancy tax.

The school may issue a valid sales tax exemption certificate in lieu of paying state and local sales tax on taxable items if they relate to the purpose of the educational institution (the items can not be used for the personal benefit of a private member or individual.)

Employees traveling on behalf of the school may issue a hotel occupancy tax exemption certificate instead of paying the state portion of the hotel occupancy tax. The method of payment will not affect the exemption. Non-employees and/or student groups traveling in association with the school may also issue a hotel exemption certificate instead of paying the state portion of the hotel occupancy tax, as long as the hotel is paid by way of institutional funds. In other words by check, credit card, direct billing to the school, etc.

The enclosed certificates, forms 01-339 and 12-302, do not require a number to be valid, and you may reproduce them in any quantity. You may also download additional copies of these forms online at <http://window.state.tx.us/taxinfo/taxforms/01-3392.pdf>, or <http://window.state.tx.us/taxinfo/taxforms/12-302.pdf>. You can also call Tax Assistance at 1-800-252-1385.

If you have questions regarding sales of taxable items or services and feel it may be necessary to hold a sales tax permit, contact Tax Assistance at the above number.

For questions about the organization's exempt status, you may e-mail me at tax.help@cpa.state.tx.us or call me toll free at 1-800-531-5441, extension 5-0252.

Sincerely,
